IN BRIEF

Located in the village center of Sérignac-sur-Garonne, a lively and pleasant community with shops within walking distance, this townhouse offers spacious volumes, charm, and authentic character.

In the heart of the village, you can enjoy lovely walks along the canal and stroll under the covered arcades (comières) to refresh yourself on a café terrace. Be sure to visit the twisted spire (clocher à tors) of the church—a unique landmark in the area—restored by the Compagnons du Devoir in 1988 (note: sources indicate the restoration was completed in 1989).

You will find this property in excellent condition with high-quality features, including:

Terrace with a 6-person spa.
Heat pump and air conditioning.
