DESCRIPTION

This attractive and well-maintained property offers spacious accommodation throughout, together with an attached one-bedroom gîte, extensive gardens and a range of useful outbuildings.

The main house is entered through a welcoming 15m² entrance hall which leads to the principal reception rooms. The generous 26m² lounge provides a comfortable living space and benefits from an adjoining 13m² storage room, offering excellent potential for a study, hobby room or additional accommodation, subject to any necessary permissions. A separate 5m² larder provides valuable storage space.

At the heart of the home is the impressive 41m² kitchen and dining room, featuring a log burner and ample space for family dining and entertaining.

On the first floor, the principal bedroom measures 18m² and benefits from a 3m² en-suite shower room. There are two further bedrooms of 5m² and 10m², together with a 4m² family shower room. The fourth bedroom is particularly spacious at 27m² and enjoys an 11m² en-suite bathroom.

The attached gîte provides excellent accommodation for guests, extended family or potential rental income. It comprises a 16m² lounge, a 12m² kitchen/dining room, a 9m² bedroom and a 4m² shower room.

Outside, the property sits within approximately 3,692m² of gardens and grounds, offering plenty of space to enjoy the surrounding countryside. A pergola with Velux windows creates an attractive covered outdoor seating area, while the established gardens include a vegetable patch and two water butts.

Additional outbuildings include a 17m² barn and a separate 35m² garage, together with off-road parking for up to four vehicles.
