DESCRIPTION

Situated in the very centre of Les Coches, this rare mixed-use property occupies a prime position on the village square, just a short walk from the ski lifts providing direct access to the vast La Plagne, Paradiski ski area.

Ground floor (shop level)

The ground floor comprises a commercial premises of approximately 46m² with excellent visibility and frontage onto the pedestrianised village centre. On the floor below is a stockroom of approximately 20m², offering valuable storage space for retail or professional use. The shop has been run as a successful family business selling gifts and souvenirs. Also on this level is a private garage of 27.6m², a highly sought-after feature in a busy ski resort, together with a cellar of approximately 5.1m².

First floor

On the floor above is the two bedroomed apartment. It opens into a bright and welcoming living area of approximately 32m² with an open-plan fitted kitchen, dining area and lounge centred around a fireplace. Large windows frame the views towards the surrounding mountains and over the village square. The bedrooms were recently renovated and share a large a shower room and separate WC.

Second floor

The upper floor provides additional accommodation and flexibility. A further living room of approximately 22m² opens onto a terrace of around 12.7m which could be used to extend this cosy apartment. This level is ideal as a second lounge, games room, office or guest accommodation, creating a property that can comfortably accommodate family and friends throughout the year.
