DESCRIPTION

Situated in a small and exclusive new residence comprising just four apartments, each benefiting from its own dedicated storage room and exclusive use of a garden area, this beautifully designed duplex offers a rare opportunity to acquire a high-quality property in the very centre of Bozel.

Completed in 2026, the apartment provides 112.89 m² of internal accommodation arranged over two levels, together with ample additional storage space beneath the eaves.

The apartment has two independent entrances, accessed via an exterior staircase on the west side of the building and via the garden level on the east side.

LOWER LEVEL

The entrance opens into a spacious hallway with practical built-in storage beneath the internal staircase.

The first double bedroom benefits from an east-facing window and fitted wardrobes. A separate shower room on this level is equipped with a shower, washbasin, Japanese-style WC with bidet spray and heated towel rail.

The principal bedroom also benefits from fitted wardrobes and an east-facing window. Its ensuite bathroom provides a particularly comfortable space, featuring a corner spa bath, rain shower, double washbasins, Japanese-style WC with bidet spray and heated towel rail. A west-facing window provides additional natural light.

One of the particularly practical features of this apartment is a large walk-through ancillary room. Extending across the apartment, this versatile area provides substantial additional space for skis, boots, bicycles, sports equipment, coats and general household storage.

It can be accessed directly from the apartment or by
