IN BRIEF

This rare and versatile property complex offers exceptional potential for residential use or rental activity. It includes a well-maintained main house, four independent studios, and two additional apartments, providing remarkable accommodation capacity and multiple configuration possibilities.

The main house is in excellent condition, featuring a roof in very good shape, double-glazed windows, and recent electrical installations with no significant anomalies. No renovation or improvement work is required, allowing immediate occupation or operation.

Outdoors, the property benefits from a large, fully enclosed and beautifully wooded plot, offering complete privacy and a peaceful atmosphere. A heated swimming pool enhances the comfort and leisure appeal of the estate.
