NOTES

DESCRIPTION

On the edge of a small hamlet outside the village of Reigny the property is accessed on a large plot with a driveway for several vehicles and a large underbuild garage.

The house is elevated and access to the ground floor is via an external set of stairs to a long corridor with and very large living/dining room with double aspect windows and patio doors to a very large terrace also elevated over the side and rear garden. The lounge dining room has a feature insert wood burning fire and a 2nd door to the entrance hallway.

On the opposite side of the entrance hallway is a large kitchen recently updated but with vintage tiling and style throughout. This fully equipped kitchen with dishwasher, induction cooking and electric oven also has double aspects to the front and side of the property.

Continuing down the hall there is a staircase to the upper floor and a doorway to the staircase to the lower ground floor with large garage space for multiple vehicle, wine cellar, workshop area and boiler room with shower. The property is serviced by both wood and gas cistern (submerged in the garden) offering flexible heating options and with the double glazing and insulation, providing a C rated energy efficiency.

To the end of the ground floor is a large bedroom and also a modern shower room and separate WC.

The first floor opens to a large central hallway with 4 large bedrooms off and...
