NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Elegant Riverside Character Home with Swimming Pool and Stunning Gardens

Ideally situated in the sought-after riverside village of Port-Sainte-Foy, just a short stroll from the historic bastide town of Saint-Foy-la-Grande with its renowned weekly market and everyday amenities, this elegant stone residence combines timeless character, spacious accommodation, beautiful gardens and a wonderful riverside setting.

Accessed through electric gates and a long driveway, the property is set within just over one hectare of landscaped grounds. The gardens extend to the banks of the River Dordogne, creating a beautiful natural backdrop.

Stepping inside, the welcoming entrance hall immediately impresses with its beautiful original wooden staircase, setting the tone for the elegant accommodation beyond. High ceilings, large windows and a harmonious blend of wooden and tiled flooring create a home that is light, spacious and full of character.

The impressive approximately 40m² lounge and dining room provides an excellent reception space for both everyday living and entertaining. Filled with natural light, it enjoys lovely views across the gardens and offers a warm and welcoming atmosphere.

The fully fitted kitchen leads into the approximately 35m² conservatory, a pleasant additional living space overlooking the gardens. The conservatory benefits from a WC and provides direct access to the terrace and garden.

A separate office provides an ideal work-from-home space, library or snug.

The first floor offers four generously proportioned bedrooms, one of which benefits from an en-suite shower room, together with a spacious family
