DESCRIPTION

This property is within walking distance of Saint-Junien Town centre yet has all the benefits of country living. The river views are beautiful and marry well with the surrounding song birds. Beyond the private double gates, this secret, serenity complex unfolds. The 1st building you encounter upon entering the grounds, is the original tannery. This building has 3 upper floors and a workshop/storage area on the ground floor. There remains historical remnants of this structure's industrial past, bringing an authentic charm and uniqueness to this purchase.

The current owners have gone a long way to creating living accommodation on the 2nd floor. Composing of; Large kitchen/diner, Open plan living room with pellet burner, Office, 2 bedrooms, 1 bathroom, Covered terrace with balcony & view of river.

There's further restoration possible here, should you want more from this building, it has a lot more to give. It is packed full of character with its feature wide wooden staircase and scope for development. Once completed it will be impossible to ignore the grandeur of this unique building.

The restored dwelling is an impressive 3 bed/3 bath home, with a joined but entirely independent annexe/gite. The 1 bed/1 bath cosy cottage has a fully equipped kitchen/diner, modern bathroom, comfortable sitting room and stylish bedroom.

The main house itself is extremely charming and luminous due to large patio doors and open plan living design. The kitchen boasts fitted units and a large preparation island with seating, for less formal...
