NOTES

DESCRIPTION

OVERVIEW:

This exceptional top-floor corner apartment delivers a perfect blend of character, modern comfort, and an unbeatable location in the highly desirable town of Mouans-Sartoux. Set on the first and top floor of an intimate building comprising just three residential units and two ground-floor shops, the property stands out for its absolute privacy. With no upstairs neighbors, no adjacent neighbor on one side, and no direct neighbor below, it provides a peaceful, house-like living experience that is incredibly rare for a town-center location.

The apartment has been impeccably renovated and decorated, requiring absolutely no additional work. It boasts an outstanding energy efficiency profile with an almost perfect energy score of B/A, thanks to high-quality finishes and reversible air conditioning.

For added flexibility, buyers also have the option to acquire the premium furniture currently in the property. While the building does not feature an elevator, a quote has already been prepared and neighbor approval obtained to install an electric stairlift in the stairwell if required.

The condominium fees are at a relatively low level of 130€/month. The yearly property tax amounts to 620€.

LAYOUT:

The property features a bright cross-layout optimized for comfort and functionality, spanning approximately 65 m2 of interior living space and nearly 40 m2 of outdoor areas.

An inviting entryway connects the living spaces seamlessly. The sun-drenched living room opens straight onto the main 32 m2 terrace. This expansive outdoor space overlooks the main town square and is partly roofed, making it an ideal setting for entertaining or relaxing....
