DESCRIPTION

Character Property Complex in the Heart of Carrouges – Commercial Premises, Renovated House and Large Guest House with Garden

A rare opportunity in the centre of Carrouges, combining rental investment, primary or secondary residence, and tourism potential. This unique property comprises three independent buildings, offering multiple possibilities: immediate rental income, holiday accommodation, commercial activity or a family project.

Located in the heart of Carrouges, a charming historic village in the Orne department and part of the Normandie-Maine Regional Natural Park, the property enjoys an exceptional setting combining heritage, nature and local amenities.

An Ideal Location

Carrouges provides all everyday conveniences, including:

- * Nursery, primary and secondary schools
- * Local shops: bakery, butcher, pharmacy, banks, restaurants, newsagent, florist, healthcare professionals and veterinary services
- * Weekly market, local associations and a vibrant village atmosphere

Distances: Alençon: 24 km (approx. 25 minutes), Argentan: 24 km (approx. 25 minutes), La Ferté-Macé: 16 km (approx. 15 minutes)

Rich Heritage

Carrouges is renowned for its magnificent red-brick château, listed as a French National Monument. Originally built during the Middle Ages and later transformed during the Renaissance, it is famous for hosting France's last judicial duel. The château and its beautiful grounds attract visitors throughout the year.

The village is also one of the gateways to the Normandie-Maine Regional Natural Park, offering forests, hiking trails, cycling routes and unspoilt countryside.
