NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Nestled in a peaceful hamlet in the French Alps, this charming three-storey property offers a wonderful opportunity for family living, a mountain retreat, or an investment project.

Surrounded by trees that provide shade and privacy, the property enjoys a cosy and tranquil setting. The trees could be selectively reduced to open up even more impressive views towards the surrounding mountains. The sloping front garden is beautifully established with numerous fruit trees, creating a lovely outdoor space to enjoy the Alpine environment.

The property offers generous accommodation with four bedrooms, two kitchens, two shower rooms and two bathrooms. The flexible layout means it could be used as one spacious family home or potentially divided into three separate apartments, offering excellent rental or business potential. Fibre internet is already connected, making it suitable for modern living or remote working.

Full of character and warmth, the home features a welcoming wood-burning stove complemented by electric heating. The bedrooms are generously sized, creating a comfortable and homely atmosphere. Some updating and decorative work would allow the new owner to personalise the property and add their own style.

Outside, the property benefits from private parking and attractive gardens. The septic tank system will require renewal, providing an opportunity for future owners to carry out improvements to their own specification.

Ideally located for mountain lovers, the property is approximately 30 minutes from several renowned ski resorts, including the Three Valleys, Sybelles and Saint François Longchamp. The nearby train station is only 10 minutes away, while...
