NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The house has been perfectly renovated and carefully maintained, with the roof inspected and serviced this winter. Additional features include a water softener, heated pool and reversible air conditioning.

Located close to the Canal du Midi, Marseillette is a peaceful and picturesque village surrounded by vineyards, while Carcassonne and Lézignan-Corbières are both easily accessible.

The property also has excellent summer rental potential, making it equally attractive as a permanent home, a second home or an investment.

A turnkey property with character, privacy, a pool and beautiful views — a true little holiday haven in the heart of the Aude.
