DESCRIPTION

Situated in one of Bordeaux's most prestigious residential districts, just a short walk from the centre of Caudéran, Parc Bordelais and several renowned schools, this outstanding contemporary home, completed in 2021, offers almost 300 m² of beautifully appointed living space on a private landscaped 1,000 m² plot.

Inspired by the timeless elegance of Georgian mansions found on the East Coast of the United States, the home's striking façade is complemented by interiors influenced by traditional French design, featuring refined cornices, decorative mouldings and beautifully proportioned living spaces. Designed with family living in mind, the generous layout combines sophistication with warmth, creating a welcoming and elegant atmosphere.

The entrance opens onto generous interiors featuring a guest suite, a spacious dressing room and a separate TV lounge. Flooded with natural light, the impressive open-plan living space seamlessly combines an elegant lounge, dining area and premium fitted kitchen with an adjoining utility room.

Outside, the beautifully landscaped garden has been designed to create the feeling of being on holiday all year round. Completely private and not overlooked, it features a heated swimming pool, an elegant 31 m² pool house, a summer kitchen with BBQ area, and two spacious terraces—offering the perfect setting for relaxing or entertaining family and friends.

Upstairs, the home offers a luxurious principal suite, two further en-suite bedrooms, a home office, a games room that could easily become a fifth bedroom, and a separate laundry room.

Underfloor heating, reversible air conditioning and a garage complete this exceptional property, offering...
