IN BRIEF

Set in a wonderfully peaceful countryside location with far-reaching views across rolling hills, this impressive estate offers space, character and exciting potential. The main house is bursting with character with it's original cow byres and exposed stone whilst benefiting from a recently replaced roof and underfloor heating. A charming stone cottage could be further accommodation once the final stages of renovation have been completed, offering excellent potential as a guest house or gîte. Equestrian enthusiasts will appreciate the recently constructed barn with high-quality stables, complemented by extensive grounds ideal for horses. Surrounded by beautiful open countryside and enjoying exceptional privacy and panoramic views, this versatile property would make a superb permanent residence, holiday home, equestrian property or lifestyle project in an idyllic rural setting.
