IN BRIEF

Tucked away in the historic heart of Lauzerte, this characterful stone house offers a rare combination of village living, independent guest accommodation, generous workshop space and a garden overlooking the countryside. The original traditional stone property has been extended in the 1970's and now offers a comfortable 2 bedroom home (73 m2) and an independent one-bedroom apartment (39 m2) with excellent holiday rental potential, or simply as comfortable space for visitors. The garage and the spacious workshop above are exceptional to find in a village property. Whether you are looking for a creative space, a home with rental potential, or simply a characterful village property with comfortable accommodation for family and friends, this house offers remarkable flexibility. It combines historic charm with modern living, all within walking distance to the cafés, shops, and the weekly market of Lauzerte,...
