DESCRIPTION

The property is situated on the edge of a pretty residential area of the village. This spacious home offers flexible accommodation, lovely countryside views from the terrace and a private swimming pool.

The property is built in the traditional 'sous-sol' style, with a large part of the basement level having been converted to provide additional living accommodation. There is also a garage and cellar under the main part of the house.

The main living space is situated on the raised ground floor. A sunny terrace wraps around two sides of the house, providing the perfect spot to relax and enjoy the elevated position and lovely views over the surrounding countryside.

The spacious fitted kitchen is bright and welcoming, with double doors opening directly onto the terrace, making al-fresco dining particularly easy. The large L-shaped living/dining room also has double doors onto the terrace and is centred around an attractive inset wood-burning stove. There is also a new air source heat pump, which provides heating to this room as well as air conditioning.

At the rear of the hallway is a good-sized double bedroom, with a stylish shower room and separate WC conveniently located next to it.

Upstairs are two further well-proportioned bedrooms, together with a family bathroom and separate WC. Useful additional storage space has also been created within the roof eaves. The main bedroom benefits from a ceiling fan.

The lower level provides even more versatile accommodation. This part of the basement has been partially converted to include...
