DESCRIPTION

This charming traditional French property offers excellent versatility and would make a wonderful family home while retaining the opportunity to continue operating as a Bed and Breakfast. The current layout provides excellent separation between the private living accommodation and the guest areas, with a separate entrance and a locking door connecting the two, allowing the owners to maintain their privacy.

The main house is accessed through an entrance leading into a lovely orangery (3.5x6.1m), a versatile space ideal for entertaining, dining or simply relaxing. This opens into the bright and spacious open-plan kitchen, dining and living area (5.1x9.8m), which forms the heart of the home. Large windows and French doors overlooking the garden and patio fill the room with natural light and create a welcoming family space. The existing fireplace could potentially be reinstated with a wood-burning stove, subject to the necessary approvals and installation requirements, providing additional warmth and ambience during the cooler months.

A locking door from the main living area provides access to the Bed and Breakfast accommodation, allowing the two areas to be easily separated. The B&B area includes a spectacular round dining room (13m²) enjoying beautiful views over the garden, a bedroom/living room (4.3x4.6m) with a veranda leading directly to the garden, a conservatory providing a pleasant space to relax, a bathroom with WC (3.8x2m) and a separate WC.

A spiral staircase leads to a particularly impressive guest bedroom (15m²). Bright and spacious, this room features beautiful stained-glass windows and...
