IN BRIEF

Set in a peaceful countryside location between the beautiful villages of Lauzerte and Montcuq, this spacious 1970s property offers generous accommodation, lovely views and excellent potential to create a versatile family home or two separate living units.

Located in the commune of Bouloc-en-Quercy, the property enjoys a lovely rural setting while remaining within easy reach of local amenities. The house is set in a predominantly flat garden with established fruit trees and open views across the surrounding countryside.

The property's two-level configuration, with four bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, offers interesting potential for creating two independent living areas, making it particularly appealing for those seeking accommodation for extended family, a guest apartment or a potential rental unit.

The house would benefit from some internal modernisation and updating, offering buyers the
