NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Come and discover this charming house located in Le Mené, in the Plessala area, set in a peaceful and rural environment.

The ground floor comprises a living room, fitted kitchen, shower room, separate WC, utility room and boiler room.

Upstairs, a landing leads to three bedrooms. There is also a WC on this floor.

The attic offers further potential for conversion, subject to the necessary permissions and works, providing an opportunity to create additional living space.

Outside, and separate from the main house, is a substantial detached barn offering a wide range of possibilities, whether for garage space, workshop, storage, hobbies or other projects.

The property also benefits from a large, established garden with mature trees, providing a pleasant outdoor space and a peaceful setting.

This is a property with good potential for improvement and further development, ideal for those looking for a rural home with space and outbuilding potential.

Conveniently located approximately 7 minutes from Kermené and 20 minutes from both Loudéac and Merdrignac.
