NOTES

DESCRIPTION

EXCEPTIONAL AND RARE – On the doorstep of Paris, this 97 m² (Carrez law) apartment benefits from a magnificent private 35 m² terrace-garden, sheltered from view.

SPACIOUS and naturally comfortable in summer, including during periods of intense heat, the apartment benefits from several features that contribute to its summer comfort:

A generous ceiling height of 2.9 m. The mature garden vegetation helps create a cooler microclimate through the shade and evapotranspiration provided by the trees and plants. A cool, dry and well-maintained 38 m² basement, directly accessible from the apartment, offering multiple possibilities for use: workshop, games room, leisure space or storage.

THE TERRACE-GARDEN, private and sheltered from view, extends to 35 m² and forms a genuine extension of the apartment. The garden benefits from both drip and sprinkler irrigation systems.

In one corner, a magnificent crape myrtle (Lagerstroemia indica) adds charm and character to this intimate outdoor space, particularly enjoyable during the warmer months. Its late flowering, in delicate colours, brightens the garden until early autumn. Its bark, with beige, grey and pink hues, followed by foliage turning yellow and orange in autumn, extends its ornamental appeal throughout the seasons.

The terrace photographs have been virtually furnished to illustrate the potential layout of this outdoor space. The terrace also provides ample room for a garden table, ideal for al fresco summer dining.

From the moment you enter, the generous proportions and warm atmosphere immediately make an impression.
