DESCRIPTION

A comfortable holiday home in a quiet little hamlet near Chapaize, with a low-maintenance courtyard offering open rural views. Situated in the heart of southern Burgundy, just a 5-minute drive from Cormatin, with its restaurants and small shops, and 10 minutes from Taizé. The property can be purchased furnished, ready to be enjoyed.

It is an excellent base from which to explore southern Burgundy, with numerous walking trails and cycle routes nearby, including the greenway from Chalon-sur-Saône to Mâcon, which passes through Cormatin. The house has been made comfortable for a small family while retaining much of its original rustic character. Immediately habitable as a holiday home, it would benefit from some modernisation if intended as a permanent residence, such as improved insulation and an updated central heating boiler.

Enter via a few steps from the courtyard into a covered gallery, with space to sit and enjoy a glass of wine while admiring the view towards the Mâconnais hills in the distance. On this level there is a dining room with a corner kitchen, a sitting room with an open fireplace, a shower room and a separate WC. Stairs from the sitting room lead to a small landing and 2 large bedrooms, one of which has a WC and washbasin.

The house has double glazing and oil-fired central heating. It is connected to mains drainage.

Beneath the house are 2 large cellars, ideal for storage. On one side of the courtyard, facing south, there is an attached outbuilding...
