IN BRIEF

Located in Bourlens, at the gateway to the Lot department and ideally situated between the classified medieval village of Tournon-d'Agenais and the economic hub of Fumel, discover this high-quality traditionally built home. Nestled in the heart of a superb oak-tree park, it features a beautiful covered terrace for welcoming gatherings.

This rare property is divided into two independent apartments, both accessible on one level. The first offers an entrance hall, a fitted eat-in kitchen, a spacious living room with an open fireplace, four bedrooms (one with direct bathroom access), a bathroom with two walk-in showers, a guest toilet with hand basin, and a large balcony overlooking the park. The garden-level apartment includes an entrance hall, a living room, a fitted kitchen, two bedrooms, a bathroom, and a separate toilet.

A garage, a back kitchen, and a pantry complete this
