DESCRIPTION

CARHAIX-PLOUGUER, town centre — Restaurant business (fonds de commerce) currently trading, ideally located on the main, busiest commercial street of the town, right in the heart of the Poher (Central Brittany).

A rare location, in a town centre just freshly renovated

The restaurant enjoys a prime position on Carhaix's main commercial street, in a town centre undergoing a full transformation: over €3.7 million invested by the town council between 2024 and 2025 to rebuild the road surface, pavements and utilities of the Grande Rue, with outdoor terrace space to follow shortly.

The only Bib Gourmand table in the Poher

This is currently the only restaurant in the whole Poher area to hold a Michelin Guide Bib Gourmand award — the nearest comparable addresses are in Morlaix, Quimper or Pontivy, 40 km away or more. A reputation that reaches well beyond Carhaix and draws destination diners, both local, regional and tourist.

A turnkey restaurant, no works required

Fully refurbished in 2022 with a modern, elegant decor, the restaurant serves 100% homemade bistronomic/semi-gourmet cuisine. It comprises a dining room seating 45 to 50 (easily extendable) with the possibility of adding an outdoor terrace. Interior floor area of approximately 228 sqm, including a fully equipped professional kitchen (new equipment, 400-class extraction hood), cold room, storage cellar of approximately 25 sqm, staff changing room with lockers, and full compliance with disability access and fire safety regulations. Several free car parks close by.
