DESCRIPTION

This charming village house is ideally positioned in the heart of the Dordogne, offering the perfect blend of countryside tranquility and convenience. Strategically situated halfway between Périgueux and Bergerac, it places you within easy reach of the region's finest hubs. Even better, you are just a short, pleasant walk from the village of Pont-Saint-Mamet, where you'll find all your daily essentials—including the renowned local bakery and grocery shop, a reliable garage, and the popular new addition to the community, Guy's Pub, perfect for catching up with neighbors over a drink.

Inside, the ground floor features a bright semi-equipped kitchen, a cozy dining room complete with a warm wood-burning stove, a separate living room, a dedicated home office, and a practical storage room. There are also two full shower rooms, each fitted with a shower, toilet, and sink, with one conveniently accommodating a dedicated laundry area. Upstairs, a central landing opens to two comfortable bedrooms. The home is equipped with double glazing throughout, classic wooden shutters, smart connected electric radiators, and a septic tank system. Outside, the fully fenced property is accessed via an entrance gate and boasts a spacious outdoor terrace, a private garden, and a handy garden shed for extra storage.
