DESCRIPTION

Accommodation

On the ground floor, an entrance hall with fitted cupboards and a downstairs WC leads to a spacious kitchen/dining room featuring a magnificent granite fireplace. The living room, complete with wood burner, and the large reception room both open onto the sun terrace and rear garden, creating excellent flow for family life and entertaining.

The first floor offers a hallway serving three double bedrooms, a shower room with WC, and a useful study or dressing room.

The second floor provides a further three double bedrooms, one enjoying a view towards Mont Saint-Michel, together with a bathroom with WC and a cosy sitting room beneath exposed roof timbers.

Outside

The property is set behind an enclosed front garden with mature trees, while the rear garden and sun terrace make the most of the peaceful surroundings and stunning countryside views. A well with pump provides a practical water source for garden use.

A large stone outbuilding, currently divided into three rooms, offers valuable storage space and potential for a variety of uses, subject to any necessary permissions.
