NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Set in the peaceful Charente countryside near the village of Oradour-Fanais, this beautifully renovated 3-bedroom stone farmhouse offers generous living space, substantial outbuildings and over 1.1 hectares of fenced land. Full of character and perfectly suited to a smallholding lifestyle, the property combines traditional features with practical modern improvements.

The heart of the house is the impressive 38.3 m² kitchen, with high ceiling, tiled floor, gas range cooker, butler sink and pellet burner. A door opens directly onto the gravelled rear terrace, creating an easy flow between the house and garden.

Adjoining the kitchen is a versatile 21 m² room with tiled flooring and its own door to the rear terrace. Currently ideal as a storeroom, it could equally serve as a home office, hobby room or additional ground-floor bedroom.

The spacious 39.39 m² living room is packed with character, with exposed stone walls, traditional timbers, tiled flooring and an original stone feature sink. A wood-burning stove with back boiler provides heating to the radiators throughout the house.

Also on the ground floor is a generous 28.13 m² room currently used as a bedroom. With exposed beams, tiled flooring and its own wood burner, it would also work beautifully as a second sitting room, dining room or family room.

The main entrance leads into a hallway with staircase to the first floor.

Upstairs, the first bedroom measures 18.48 m² and features beautiful exposed timbers, wooden flooring and built-in storage. The second upstairs bedroom, measuring 17.9 m², also has wooden floors,...
