IN BRIEF

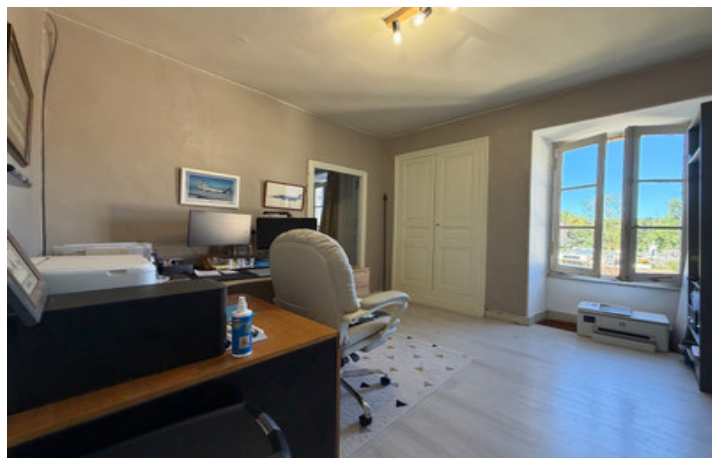

A very old property with original features such as stone niches, mullion window, stone sinks etc overlooking its own courtyard and a square across to the medieval church, river and wooded hills beyond. The ground floor has been restored and partially restored on the 1st floor and therefore habitable. There is a barn that was once an equally ancient dwelling and contains many original features. This is a well positioned village property of great character and history that would be easy to keep, habitable and has exciting ongoing projects to be tackled at an affordable pace.
