IN BRIEF

Imagine living in a tastefully renovated, comfortable, energy efficient town house just a short walk from a myriad of shops and restaurants, with quick public transport into Chambery city centre. With easy access to the principal routes and autoroute, it is incredible to find a house in such a quiet location, situated so conveniently close to everything.

The house has been comprehensively renovated in a contemporary style with triple glazing and underfloor heating to provide spacious accommodation with an excellent energy rating.

The light and airy open plan living room has a wood burning stove and opens onto the courtyard garden, which can be repurposed into parking if required. Free parking is available a few minutes walk away. Upstairs there are 2 double bedrooms leading onto the balcony with great town and mountain views plus a bathroom with bath,...
