IN BRIEF

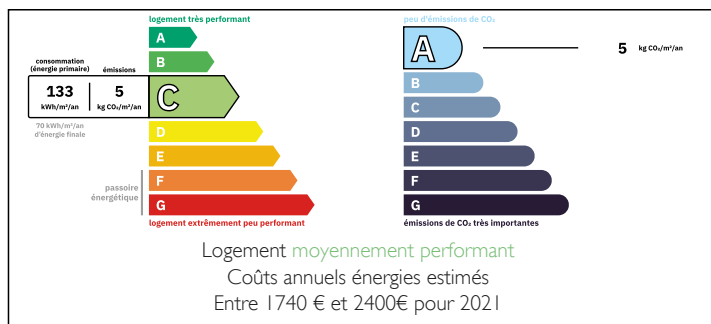

This inviting four-bedroom house combines traditional character with contemporary touches, complemented by an attractive planted garden and outdoor seating areas. We see double gates to the front, greeting the driveway and on to the garage. There's also ample parking for a motorhome, caravan or guest parking.

The property enjoys a convenient suburban setting, with no directly facing neighbours, a pleasant sense of privacy while remaining close to everyday amenities. The heart of the village is just two minutes walk away.

Six minutes away by car, the attractive larger town of Saint-Junien offers supermarkets & services, alongside restaurants and bars. Indoor & outdoor swimming pools provide opportunities for leisure, while the popular Saturday morning market is a lovely place to browse local produce and enjoy the town's lively atmosphere.

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The ground floor opens into an entrance hall and offers a versatile range of spaces, including a soundproofed music studio and a room currently used for treatments, with an accompanying cloakroom and WC. A practical workshop benefits from a water supply, sink and utility area, with a door opening directly onto the garden. This level also houses the hot water cylinder and the equipment for the heat pump central heating system. Up the stairs to..

The bright, thoughtfully designed kitchen combines contemporary fittings with a warm, welcoming feel. Sleek cabinetry in soft neutral tones is complemented by wood-effect worktops and a coordinating splashback, creating an attractive and practical space for cooking and entertaining. Integrated appliances include a fridge, freezer, alongside an electric hob, oven & extractor. The layout provides ample worktop space for food preparation, while discreet recessed lighting above the counters adds a delicate glow to the working areas.

A large window brings natural light into the room, and there is space for a dining table, ideal for relaxed everyday meals. The adjoining gallery-style breakfast balcony room provides a charming additional spot for morning coffee or a leisurely breakfast, overlooking the garden.

The living room offers a welcoming space to relax, with room for comfortable seating and a warm, homely atmosphere. Ideal for quiet evenings or spending time with family and friends, it provides an inviting setting for everyday living. The corner windows open on to a wrap around balcony that is blessed with a generous...
