DESCRIPTION

A PROPERTY FULL OF CHARACTER IN AN EXCEPTIONAL SETTING !

Far from any disturbances and sheltered from prying eyes, this remarkable 19th-century farmhouse offers a rare quality of life, in the heart of an unspoilt setting.

Completely renovated between 2018 and 2022, the property elegantly combines the authenticity of a historic home with the demands of modern comfort. With 331 m² of living space, it sits on over one hectare of fully enclosed and landscaped grounds. With no neighbours within 200 metres, it offers an exceptional sense of space, tranquillity and privacy.

The renovation was carried out whilst respecting the building's architectural identity. The stone walls, exposed original beams and interior half-timbering have been preserved and harmoniously combined with high-quality contemporary fittings.

The generous proportions, the natural light and the views out onto the garden create an atmosphere that is at once warm, refined and timeless.

The house features six bedrooms and four bathrooms, as well as a spacious reception room opening directly onto a large covered terrace, which serves as a genuine additional living space in fine weather.

The fitted kitchen, which is particularly spacious, is another central feature of the house, suited equally to everyday living and entertaining guests.

Heating is provided by a heat pump and a wood-burning stove. The quality of the renovation and insulation means the property has a B-rated Energy Performance Certificate (EPC), a particularly impressive achievement for a house of this era.

The fully enclosed and landscaped grounds provide a beautiful setting for the house.
