IN BRIEF

Discover this superb stone house full of character, charm, and authenticity, ideally located in a neighborhood where daily life is within walking distance of local shops, a mini-market, a pharmacy, and a market. The main house captivates from the moment you enter with its architecture, a testament to its history. On the ground floor, a well-organized layout features a living room, a dining room, an office, one bathroom, a half-bath, and a garage. Upstairs, a spacious hallway converted into a library leads to the various rooms: three bedrooms, an office, a walk-in closet, one bathroom, and a half-bath. The house features a harmonious and inviting layout. A large adjoining outbuilding of approximately 120 m² completes this property. Formerly a residence, it offers great potential for restoration as a home, studio, or professional space. Here, everything comes together to...
