NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Set in an elevated and peaceful position overlooking the town of Lodève, this exceptional domaine offers a versatile combination of private accommodation, established holiday rental facilities and beautiful communal grounds. With far-reaching views across the town and surrounding mountains, yet less than five minutes by car from the centre of Lodève and the A75, the property offers both tranquillity and convenience.

The domaine comprises:

The main house, built in 2007, providing approximately 174m² of living space. It includes a generous parental suite, two further bedrooms, a shower room and a large living/dining room with contemporary open plan kitchen, opening onto a generous terrace from which there are exceptional, far-reaching views. On the ground floor is an independent space currently used as a massage salon, which could readily be adapted into a studio or other private accommodation. There is also a large workshop in the garden.

A second property of approximately 120m² provides three bedrooms, living and dining room and 2 bathrooms. Adjoining it is a large function room of around 60m² with a bar, kitchen and WC. This room can welcome up to 39 guests and is an important feature of the property, providing an ideal space for group dining, celebrations, retreats, workshops or other events.

There are a further four gîtes, each of approximately 60m², each with two bedrooms, shower room, WC and a living room with fitted kitchen.

Each property has its own private garden ranging from 1000 to 2200m² and include a terrace for al...
