DESCRIPTION

Located in the welcoming village of Salles-Lavalette, this recently renovated two-bedroom property offers a wonderful combination of traditional character and modern comfort. Bright, spacious and ready to move into, it would make an excellent permanent home, holiday property or easy-to-maintain base in the Charente countryside.

One of its major attractions is its village location. The property is within walking distance of a local boulangerie for your morning bread and pastries, as well as a particularly popular local restaurant, making it possible to enjoy some of the simple pleasures of French village life without having to get in the car.

Ground Floor

The front door opens directly into the generous open-plan kitchen and dining area (17.75m²). This provides a practical and welcoming entrance to the home, with plenty of space for a dining table and fitted kitchen.

From here, the accommodation flows through into the 18.36m² living room, a light and comfortable space featuring a character fireplace and an air-conditioning unit. The fireplace is currently non-functional but provides an attractive original feature and focal point.

The living room also provides access to the 10.37m² cave, offering useful storage space.

First Floor

Upstairs, a particularly spacious 16.73m² landing provides more than simply circulation space. With its generous proportions and natural light, it could readily be arranged as a home office, reading area, study or additional sitting space.

There are two well-proportioned bedrooms:

Bedroom 1 – 15.32m², with an attractive feature fireplace.
