IN BRIEF

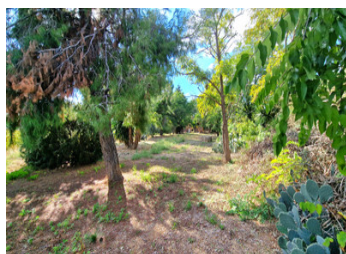

A rare opportunity to acquire a characterful former wine estate near the Canal du Midi, set within 1.4 hectares of beautiful grounds with mature trees and sweeping views across the surrounding vineyards. The main house of 174m2 retains a wealth of period features, including original tiled floors, marble fireplaces and ornate wooden doors. Four/Five bedrooms provide generous accommodation, while the spacious kitchen opens onto a south-facing terrace of 75m2 overlooking the grounds and vines, an idyllic spot for outdoor dining. Beneath the main house and across the estate, over 583 m² of outbuildings offer remarkable scope for renovation, including two independent houses, stables and a vast former wine cellar. This substantial ensemble presents an exciting opportunity to restore a historic property and explore its potential. Combining authentic charm, extensive grounds and a sought-after setting close...
