DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the beautiful Breton countryside, close to the village of Duault, this delightful neo-Breton home offers a wonderful opportunity to embrace a peaceful, more self-sufficient way of life. Set within 9,942 m² of land, the property has been lovingly maintained and improved over the years, creating a welcoming home with excellent facilities for animals, gardening and outdoor living.

The House

Built around 1960, the house offers approximately 90 m² of living accommodation, arranged mainly on one level.

The accommodation comprises:

A spacious 32 m² kitchen, dining and living area with a traditional wood-burning range, creating a warm and welcoming heart to the home.

Two generously sized bedrooms, one approximately 12 m² and the other approximately 20 m², with a wood-burning stove in the larger bedroom.

A modern shower room with walk-in shower.

Separate WC.

A practical utility room.

The property benefits from triple-glazed windows, renovated electrics, fibre-optic internet and additional electric radiators.

There is also approximately 50 m² of attic space offering potential for conversion, subject to the necessary permissions.

A lovely 28 m² wooden terrace, partially covered, provides the perfect place to relax, dine outdoors and enjoy views across the surrounding countryside.
